

Pennywise

Factory-built homes from Russell Versaci

The Milliner is a classic American farmhouse. In the late 1800s the simple I-house form grew to accommodate a rear wing and wraparound porch. The new style was built in rural areas from coast to coast, and eventually it became an American icon.

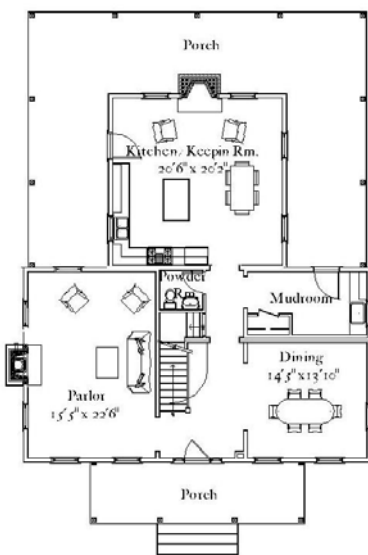

The Milliner

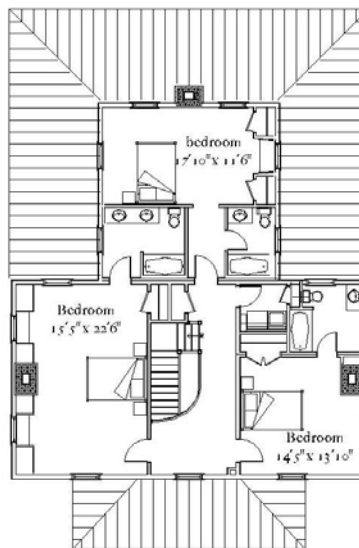

rear

front

first floor

second floor

Summary

3 bedrooms, 3 1/2 baths
Finished area: 2726 sf

First floor: 1363 sf Second floor: 1363 sf

Covered porches: 1021 sf Unfin. basement: 1306 sf